

In a letter to the Republican National Committee, Chairman Waxman states that it is unacceptable that — after three letters from the Committee — the RNC has provided only minimal information regarding White House officials' use of RNC e-mail accounts. In response to the RNC's proposal to limit the Committee's request for e-mail, Chairman Waxman requests basic facts about the scope and nature of the emails sent using these accounts before he assesses whether such limitations are required.

Documents and Links

- Letter to RNC Chairman Duncan